- ~ Mennonite Church Canada: As many of us here in Canada celebrate Christmas distanced from family, pray for International Witness workers and their families as they celebrate, while also distanced. Several of the workers have given up scheduled trips back to Canada to see family in the last year in order to keep working in their country of ministry. Pray that we all experience God's promise of Emmanuel.

FROM the PASTOR: Amanda Wiens

We are now only a few days away from signing off on 2020 and this time of year always leaves me assessing what was and looking forward to what's to come, and I'm hopeful. I'm well aware that we are not living in Walt Disney's fantasy world, when the clock strikes midnight on December 31st our lives will not go back to "normal", but I'm still hopeful. I'm hopeful that 2020 has taught us a few things so we will be better prepared for whatever life brings in 2021.

Here are a few lessons I've learned, perhaps you can relate:

- o I've learnt that laughter is a great gift.
- o I've learnt the art of sitting, just sitting.
- o I've learnt to truly appreciate the smell of freshly brewed coffee, the feel of a book in my hands and the warmth of a new pair of socks.
- o I've learnt that my kids really do enjoy each other's company, they just have a funny and sometimes frustrating way of showing it.
- o I've learnt what a huge difference there is between being alone and being lonely.
- o I've learnt how valuable a quick text, email or phone call, a card or picture sent in the mail or left on a doorstep and a sincere "how are you?" is in combating loneliness.
- o I've learnt that there are things, big things, that affect my family that I have no control over. Things I cannot fix on my own.

This last one is a hard one for me. I'm a doer and a fixer, give me some time and I will formulate a plan to make things right. This past year I have learnt the art of sitting with the discomfort and I'm learning to give up the control and trust that God has it covered.

So, with all that I've learnt this past year I'm ready to step into a New Year hopeful because God is in control.

Wishing you a Happy New Year with God in the lead.

Jr & Sr Youth
