FROM the PASTOR: Mark Tiessen-Dyck

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was a pastor and a brilliant young theologian in Germany when the Nazis came to power and his career was disrupted. Two days after Hitler became Chancellor, Bonhoeffer opposed the Nazis in an address on the radio, which was terminated before he completed it. Bonhoeffer became a leader in the Confessing Church, a movement named for its confession of Jesus as Lord, at a time when the church in Germany was increasingly becoming subordinated to the Nazi regime and the ideology of German nationalism. Bonhoeffer could have become a professor of theology in America, but he returned to Germany and resisted the persecution of Jews in church and society and opposed the programs of the Nazis. The underground seminary which Bonhoeffer led was shut down and he faced increasing restrictions by the authorities including being prohibited from preaching, teaching, and writing. Eventually he was arrested, taken to a concentration camp, and executed for his role in the resistance and participation in a plot to assassinate Hitler, no doubt a difficult decision for the avowed pacifist.

In preparing my sermon for this Sunday I read some chapters of Bonhoeffer's classic, "The Cost of Discipleship." Here are some quotes:

On cheap grace and costly grace: "[costly] grace is costly because it calls us to follow, and it is grace because it calls us to follow Jesus Christ. It is costly because it costs someone their life, and it is grace because it gives a person the only true life. It is costly because it condemns sin, and grace because it justifies the sinner. Above all, it is costly because it cost God the life of his Son."

On Discipleship and the cross: "The cross is laid on every Christian. The first Christ-Suffering everyone must experience is the call to abandon the attachments of this world. It is that dying of the old self which is the result of his or her encounter with Christ. As we embark upon discipleship, we surrender ourselves to Christ in union with his death...In fact every command of Jesus is a call to die, with all our affections and lusts, but we do not want to die, and therefore Jesus Christ and his call are necessarily our death as well as our life."
