From the Pastor – Josh Janzen

Earlier this week I was reminded of the importance and power of prayer. The Youth ministers fellowship of Mennonite Church Manitoba met on Zoom for a prayer gathering. We shared about all the different things that were on our hearts and minds from this past week and then we prayed for one another. We turned off all of our cameras so that all we could hear were the voices of colleagues and friends praying for one another. And let me tell you, after that prayer time my heart just felt good. It just felt well with my soul.

Prayer is a powerful thing. To cry out to the God who hears can be one of the best things in life. Maybe you are overjoyed and celebrating. Pray to the God who rejoices with you. Maybe you know someone that needs God in that moment. Pray on their behalf. Pray that God may be present to them in their time of need. Pray to the God who hears. Maybe you are at the end of your rope and don't know what to pray. Pray and be still in the presence of God. Pray to the God who knows. Prayer is a powerful thing.
