PRAYER & PRAISE CORNER

- ~ Carol Buhr, part of our church family, passed away on April 5. We are invited to join in gratitude for her life, and pray for her husband Norman, family, and extended family. A private service was held.
- ~ Our condolences to Joe and Amanda Wiens, Gavin, Dawson, Julia and Jack, at the passing of grandfather/great grandfather Martien Wiens of Woodridge.
- ~ Pray for those who find themselves temporarily unemployed or being separated from loved one due to the COVID-19.

From the Pastor – Mark Tiessen Dyck

The First Day (A poem for Jesus inspired by John 20:1-4)

In the grave a week obliterated, a life invalidated
a way defunct.
Finished.
But not time,
another day, and another
in darkness materialized
and within darkness, brilliance.
In darkness she came, in grief
a witness of the dead,
a visitor to a cemetery,
she thought;
but it was the first day. Accomplished now
though not beheld by any mortal.
First light on the first day, realized absent a witness.
Unaware of radiance, instinctively
running in darkness,
arriving to the emptiness
confirming
a stone moved,
a tomb empty,
light risen,
It is the first day
of a new week;
It is the beginning,
And in the beginning...

Notes for Good Friday Service

The service will be unannounced, and so it may be helpful to have the outline before you as you listen and participate in the worship service. Words for the hymns follow.

This service includes a time of Communion. Have some bread before you as a sign of Christ's body and something to drink as a sign of Christ's blood. This could be a sip of wine, juice, water, coffee, or tea.

While you are certainly welcome to participate in this worship service at any time, we encourage as many as possible to begin worship at 10:30am, on Friday morning. This way, we will be united in time (if not in place) as we share the bread and cup with Jesus.

The monologues that are part of our Good Friday service were written by Cameron Kaufman-Frey for worship at Community Mennonite Church of Stouffville. Minor adaptations were made by Mark Tiessen-Dyck

WORSHIP CALENDAR

Our Weekly Worship Services will be available online until further notice.

Worship Calendar:

For the next weeks our services will explore stories from the Gospels.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Pastor Josh started his 4-week unpaid leave of absence. Josh & Steph are spending time in Nebraska. We look forward to Josh's return to ministry at ABC in the last week of April.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

- April 16 – YFC Dessert Night – fundraiser has been canceled due to the current public health crisis. We want to thank you for your support, especially at this time. Though we have had to temporarily halt our programs, we have not stopped the work of The Stations ministry. We have had to change the way we reach the young people of our community. Our focus now is online interaction with teens while adhering to the guidelines set by our government. We will take this time to grow relationships, ask tough questions, and ultimately show these young people how much Jesus loves them. We know that following God's lead, we will be able to lead kids and teens to Jesus in these unprecedented times.

Holy, Holy, Holy HWB 75

Holy, holy, holy, holy is the Lord!
Holy, holy, holy, holy God alone!

God, who, uncreated, God who always was,
Endlessly exalted, reign forever more.

Mighty, wondrous, loving, circled 'round with awe;
Holy, holy, holy, holy is the Lord.

Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence HWB 463

Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand.
Ponder nothing earthly minded, for the blessing in his hand.
Christ our God to earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary, as of old on earth he stood,
Lord of lords in human vesture, in the body and the blood,
He will give to all the faithful his own self for heavenly food.

'Tis Midnight, and on Olive's Brow HWB 241

'Tis midnight, and on Olive's brow the star is dimmed that lately shone.
'Tis midnight; in the garden now the suffering Saviour prays alone.

'Tis midnight, and from all removed, Immanuel wrestles 'lone with fears.
E'en that disciple whom he loved heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

Ah, Holy Jesus HWB 254

Ah, holy Jesus, how hast thou offended,
That mortal judgement hath on thee descended?
By foes derided, by thine own rejected, O most afflicted.

Who was the guilty? Who brought this upon thee?
Alas, my treason, Jesus, hath undone thee.
'Twas I, Lord Jesus, I it was denied thee; I crucified thee.

When I Survey

When I Survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.

See from His head, His hands, His feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down,
did e'er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Break Thou the Bread of Life HWB 360

Break thou the bread of life, dear Lord, to me,
As though didst break the loaves beside the sea.
Beyond the sacred page I seek thee, Lord;
My spirit pants for thee, O living Word.

Bless thou the truth, dear Lord, now unto me,
As thou didst less the bread by Galilee.
Then shall all bondage cease, all fetters fall,
And I shall find my peace, my all in all.

Eat This Bread HWB 471

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.
